Central College
Pella, Iowa

June 24 - 27, 2024

It is the goal of the Central Iowa Color Guard Camp to develop your student's ability and technique in the flag, rifle, or drum major areas.

We truly believe that your students will gain valuable knowledge from this camp experience.

Camp Cost:

- All Campers: $100 non-refundable deposit due now
- Resident Campers: $230 due at or before camp check-in
- Commuter Campers: $100 due at or before camp check-in
- Sponsors: $100 due at or before camp check-in

Facilities:

Residents will be housed in the air-conditioned Central College dormitory, Graham Hall, and meals will be prepared in the college dining hall. There will be adult counselors for each floor of resident students. Depending upon availability, a group that is supervised by a sponsor from their school will be housed in one of the college townhouse units.

2024 Camp Staff:

The camp staff will include some of the finest instructors/directors in the Midwest. They will bring to the camp many years of experience as members or instructors of top high school, college, winter guard, and drum and bugle corps performing organizations. The staff will be committed to developing a student's ability in an individual and group environment with the student's dedication towards learning in a cohesive manner.
